

PLAN

(If you don't you'll be the only one without a plan)

- 1. Act like you know the ropes. (Even if you don't)
- 2. Review teacher's discipline plan, but don't count on it working for you. Have a backup plan. Think through what you will do if...
- 3. Be able to use positive interaction techniques firmly.... (You can get more flies with honey...) "Please" and "Thank You" work wonders.
- 4. Know who to go to in case of severe problems. Your best friend is the teacher next door.
- 5. Have sponge activities ready for any grade level. Don't waste their day, make it worthwhile. Short stories, mini-mysteries, number riddles.
- 6. Circulate around the room during activities. Comment on their ideas, work, etc. in a way that let's them know you are noticing what they are doing and acknowledges their effort.
